

1. Double click on the installer icon

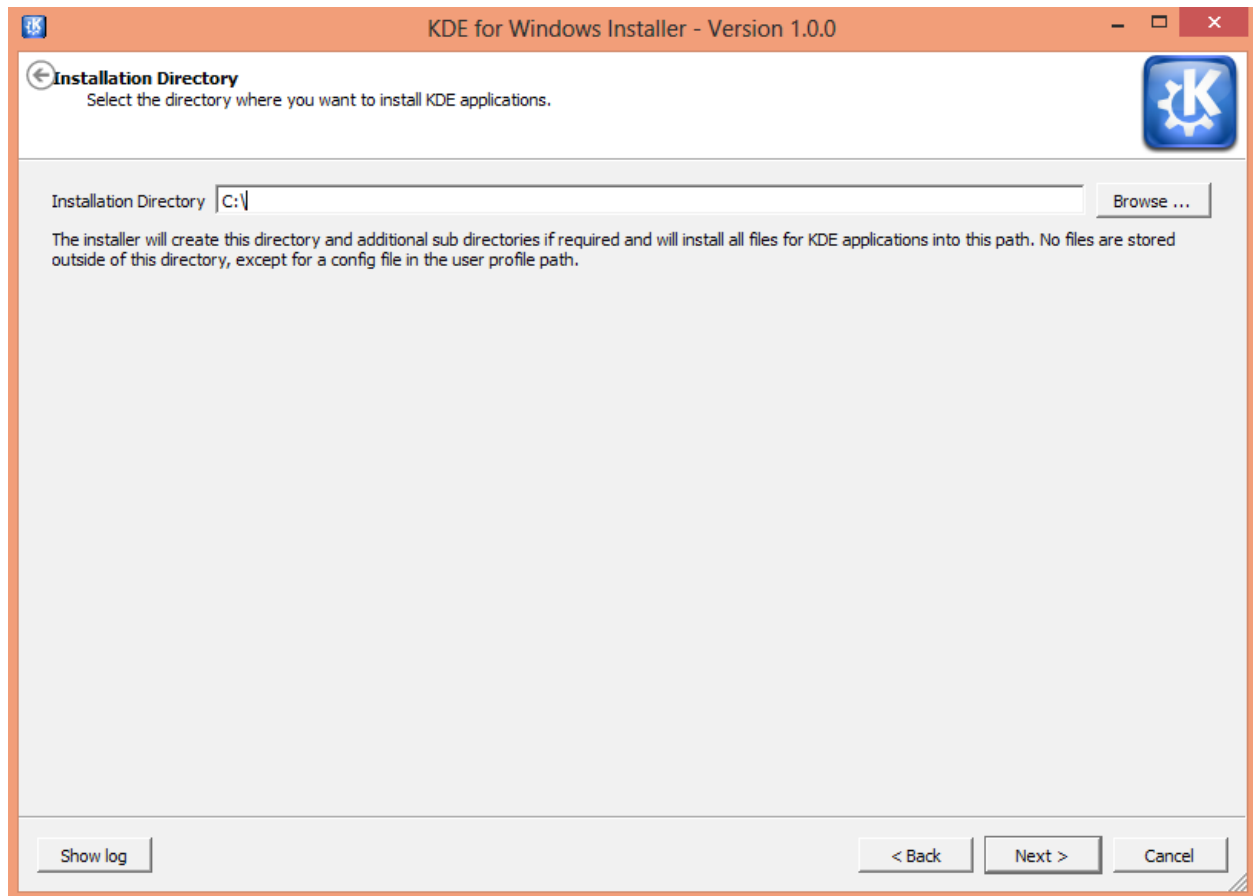

2. Select "Install from local directory" and click Next

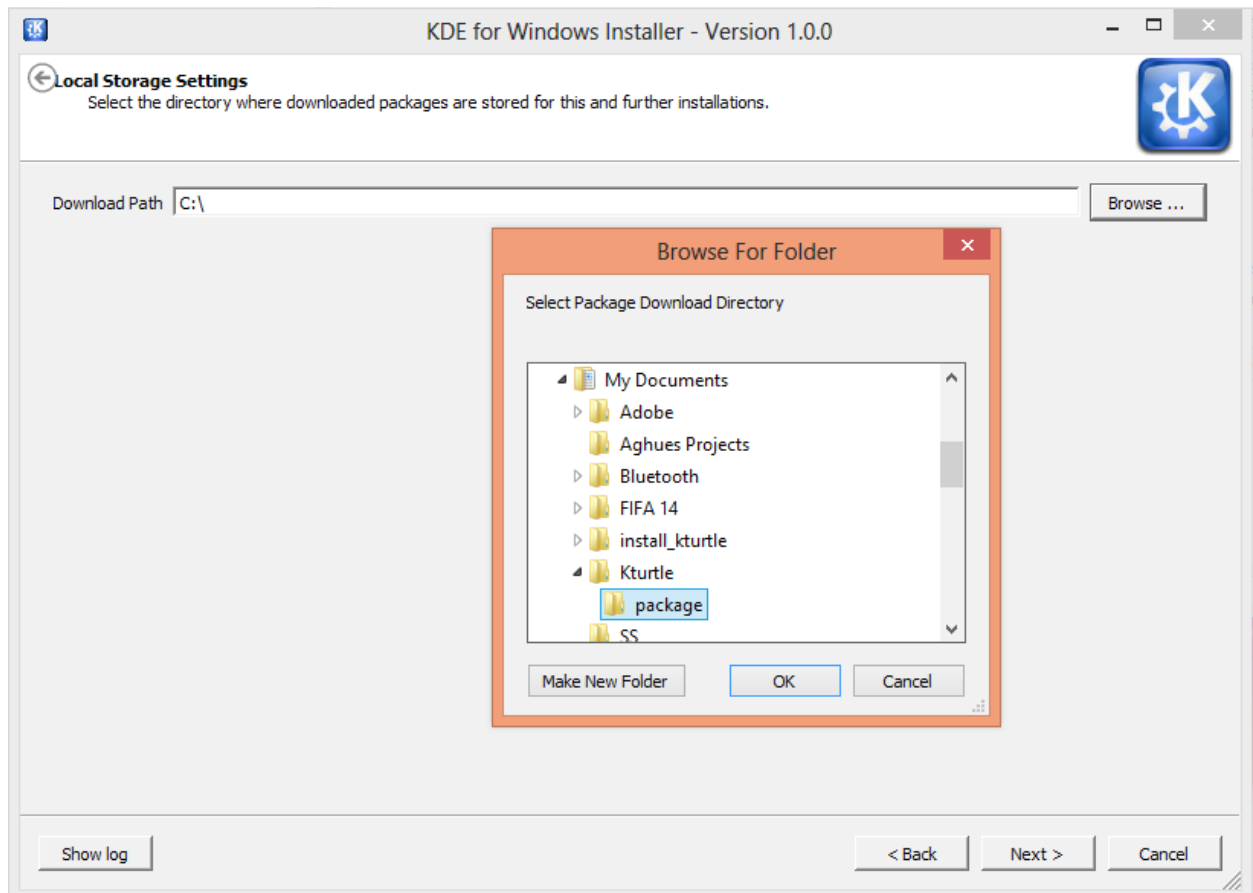

3. Select “Update installed packages or add new packages” and click Next.

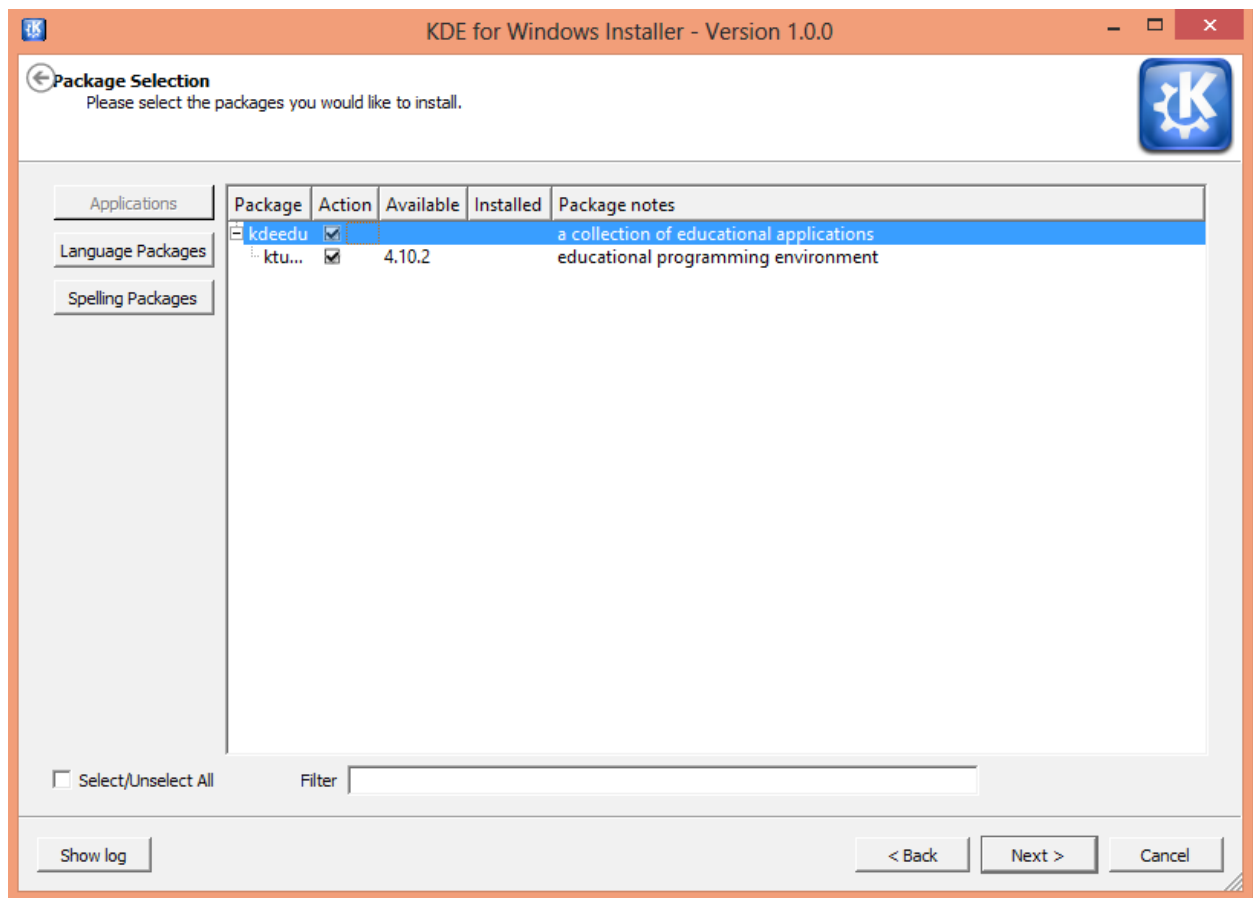

4. Select the directory where you want to instal KDE applicaitions and click Next

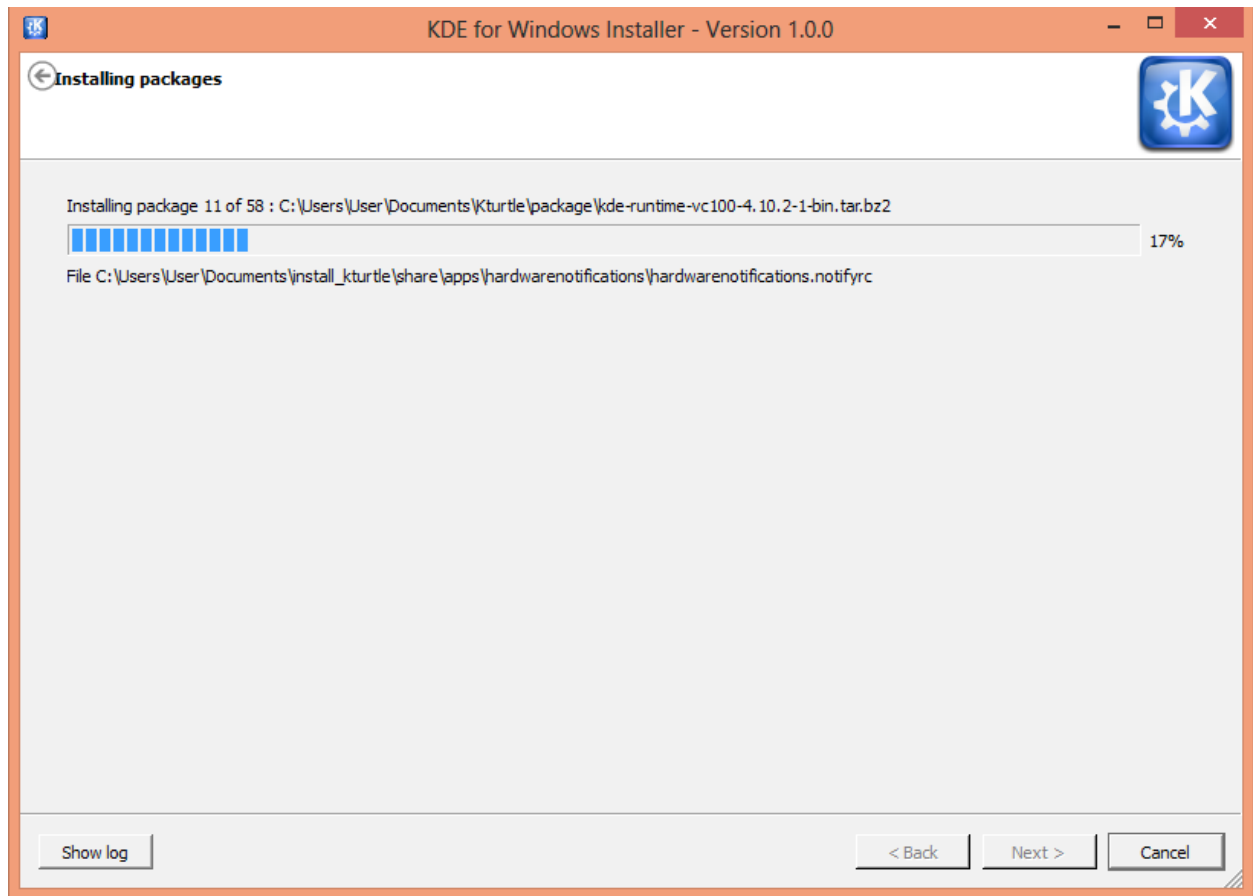

5. Select the directory where downloaded packages are stored for this and further installations and click Next.

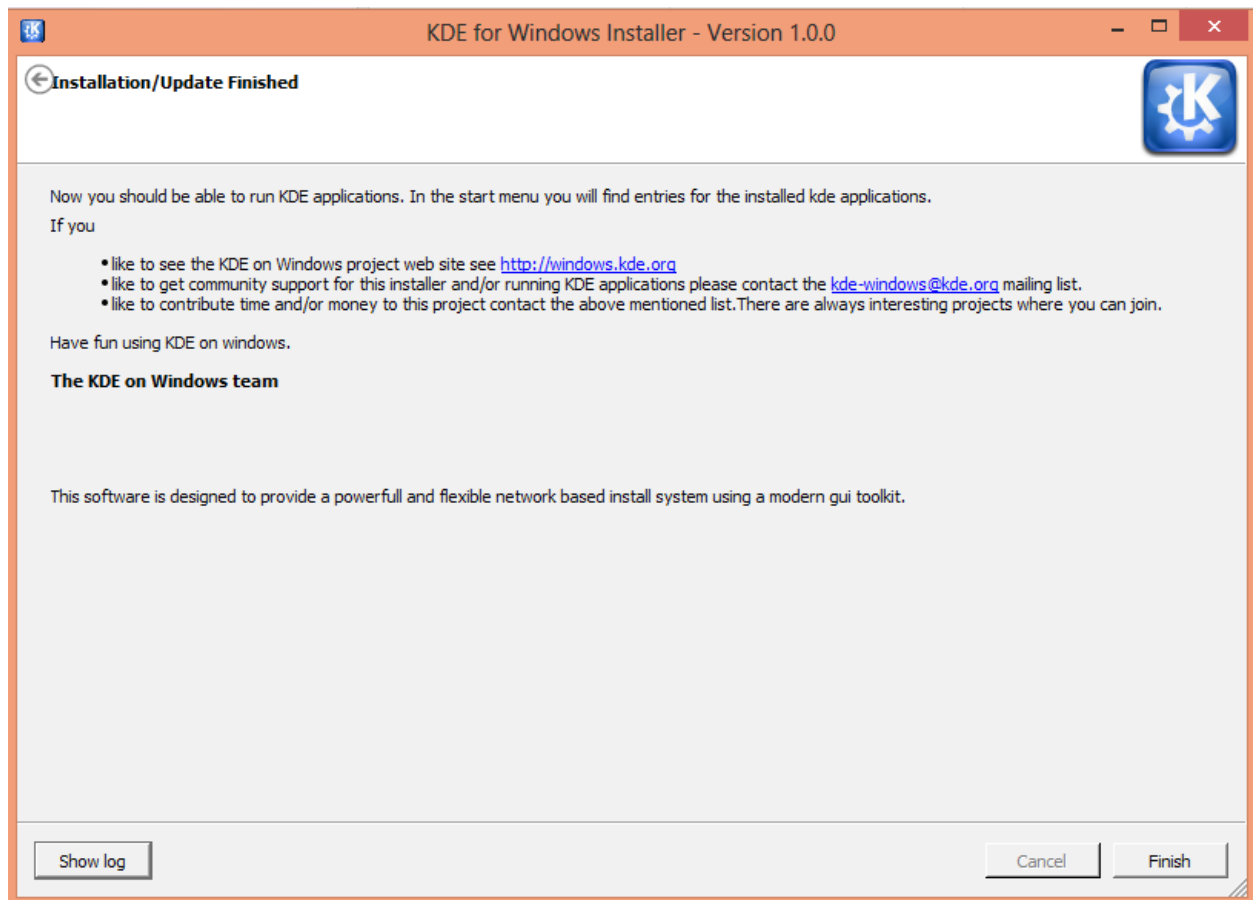

6. Select the package "kdeedu" and click Next

7. Installing packages

8. Installation Finished, click Finish

Attention

If the package does not appear in the corresponding list, it is necessary to go to the final point and start again, with same steps.